

Threading and Adjustment of the Slackbiner

The treesling is always threaded as double layer, ensure that the tails matching in length (important for centering the middle tapering of sling).

For extension of sling, just make the loops around the biner a little bit further and feed with webbing from the loose tails.

Step: Mounting the shackle and the sewn end loop of the slackline, close the shackles properly and tighten the thread hand-tight.

Shackle

Slackline with sewn end loop

Step: Keep the slackline without twist to the other side and lay it down flat in front of anchor point 2